

Kite flying

2C THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER Monday, September 13, 1993 ••••

CHRISTOPHER A. RECORD/Staff

Toni O'Neil of The Carolina Raptor Center in Charlotte releases a Mississippi Kite on Sunday. It was the 4,000th bird released since the center was founded in 1981. The bird, released near Cheraw, was injured last July when it flew into a wire. The center, in Latta Park Plantation, treated the Kite for a broken wing and other injuries.