

BENEFIT

Spread your wings

MARCH 21 — One of my favorite songs by the indie rock band The Eels is called “I Like Birds.” But, you wanna know why? It’s not just the song’s upbeat melody; it’s because I really do like birds, especially birds of prey like hawks, eagles, owls and falcons. If you feel the same — or, if you just like wine — head to Dolce Vita for Carolina Raptor Center’s Spring Celebration. With new babies hatching and orphaned ones joining the rehabilitation facility, the non-profit organization needs all the help it can get. Enjoy glasses of select wines and meet some of the resident raptors from the Carolina Raptor Center. A portion of proceeds from the event will help support Carolina Raptor Center. 21 and up. Free entry. 6 p.m.-8:30 p.m. Dolce Vita, 3205 N. Davidson St. 704-875-6521 ext. 207. www.carolinaraptorcenter.org.

— OVERCASH

A LITTLE BIRD TOLD ME: Check out the Carolina Raptor Center’s Spring Celebration at Dolce Vita on March 21.

3/18/09

Charlotte creative roofing